HUNDRED YEARS OF FINLAND'S COINS

By

F. J. BINGEN

FINLAND, "Land of the Thousand Lakes," was dominated by Sweden from the beginning of the Christian era. In the last half of the Sixteenth Century she was made a Grand Duchy and her citizens obtained the same civil rights as the Swedes. Nevertheless, the land suffered from war and famine. The Russo-Swedish war in 1808 resulted in the cession of Finland to Russia in 1809. Emperor Alexander I made himself Grand Duke of the semi-independent Finland. Nicholas II tried to "russify" the Grand Duchy but World War I ended these attempts and after a tragic internal struggle from early in 1917 to June 17, 1919, the Finnish Diet established a republic.

During the Swedish period no money was struck for Finland. Under Russia, in 1811 Finland obtained her own central bank—the Bank of Finland—which issued Finnish paper money in rubles. It was not until 1860 that Finland got its own monetary system, based on the markkaa.

The first enactments concerning Finnish coins and their composition, weight and size, were dated April 4, 1860, for the copper coins and June 12 for the silver ones. The law dealing with the exterior characteristics of the coins was dated May 8, 1861. Upon completion of the Mint the first coins were issued in 1864. Finland was on the gold standard from 1877 to 1914. The gold standard was reintroduced in 1926 and is still in force, although the redemption of bank notes in gold has been suspended since December 12, 1931. Gold coins do not circulate in Finland.

The money unit, the markka, is divided into a hundred penniä. Originally, it was equal to a gold franc, containing 0.290287 grams of fine gold. By the act of December 21, 1925, the markka was reduced to 0.130526 of a gold franc containing 0.03789 grams of fine gold. Actually the markka is the smallest coin in use currently.

No. 91. Obverse of 1000 markkaa of 1960 commemorating centennial of Finnish coinage.

The greater part of the following monetary data is taken from the booklets Les Monnaies de Finlande et la Frappe des Monnaies en 1864-1914 published by the Bank of Finland in 1942, and The Coins of Finland, 1860-1956 published by the Institute for Economic Research of the Bank of Finland in 1957. These surveys give particulars concerning coin enactments, composition, weight and size as well as circulation and withdrawal statistics in several tables. Circulation rose from mk. 17,398,000 in 1921 to mk. 2,858,811,000

F. J. Bingen, Ringbaan-West 260, Tilburg, Netherlands, has been a coin collector for more than a quarter of a century. His tastes are catholic, as witness his interests which range from emergency monies to transportation tokens; institutional and prison currencies to coins of the Netherlands, Belgium, Scandinavian countries, the Orient, English and French colonies.

in 1956. The rise was greatest from 1951 to 1956, as the circulation in 1951 was only mk. 641,281,000.

There is widespread misunderstanding that the characters on Finnish coins are mintmarks. This is not so, as nearly all Finnish coins were made at the Helsinki Mint. In 1921 and 1922 only the cupronickel pieces were struck abroad (1921, one markka, fifty and twenty-five penniä, at Birmingham, mintmark H; 1922, one markka, Copenhagen Royal Mint, mintmark a "heart"). The Helsinki Mint uses no mintmark but coins in the denominations of twenty-five penniä and higher (after 1952, ten markkaa and higher) bear the first letter of the Mint Master's name: 1864-1885, S for Soldan; 1885-1912, L for Lihr; 1912-1947, S for Sundell; 1948, L for Liuhto; 1949-1958, H for Helle; since 1959, S for Soiniemi.

In this survey, we give a list of Finnish coins as complete as possible, with the quantities of the coins issued, dates of coin enactments, coin composition, weight and size. As outside of our survey, we have not included patterns, proofs and trial pieces. Coinage statistics are taken from the official Mint reports (O.R.), for which we are indebted to Mint Master Soiniemi, to Secretary Mag. Voionmaa of the Finnish Numismatic Society, and to the Chief of the Institute for Economic Research of the Bank of Finland. Reference in our survey is made to the appropriate catalog numbers given in Wayte Raymond's Coins of the World, Nineteenth Century Issues and Coins of the World, Twentieth Century Issues, and R. S. Yeoman's A Catalog of Modern World Coins, designated respectively by the letters WR and Y.

NORWEGIAN COINAGE PROPOSALS

If the Norwegian Parliament approves a proposed coinage bill, the responsibility for determining the volume of the coin issue would be transferred to the Bank of Norway from January 1, 1962, according to Norges Handels og Sjøfartstidende, Oslo, Norway, November 6, 1961. (Questions concerning the size, weight, and form of coins would, however, remain within the province of the Crown.) For bookkeeping purposes, the change-over would entail the transfer to the Bank of Norway of the premises, plant, and other assets of the Royal Mint. The Government would guarantee to the Bank of Norway a sum equal to the amount of coins in circulation as shown in the books of the Ministry of Finance as at January 1, 1962. Finally, the Coinage Control Commission, which no longer has any practical significance, would be abolished. The Government has also proposed that the law be changed to permit 5-krone coins to be issued.

During World War II, when restrictions upon the use of metals made a change in the alloy of the five cent piece necessary, a silver-copper-manganese substitute was adopted. In order to more easily distinguish between the regular and the substitute alloy, the mint mark was changed from its usual position to the right of Monticello and appeared on the war-time five cent piece in a position above the dome of that building. The letter "P" was used on all Philadelphia five cent coins for the first and only time in the history of that Mint. After the war a return was made to the regular alloy and the Philadelphia identification was discontinued.

CANADA PREPARES WELCOME

American collectors attending the combined American and Canadian national numismatic convention in Detroit August 15-18 will find that Canada is only five minutes away. Easy to enter, it is a pleasure to travel in the historic province of Ontario. Windsor, the friendly neighbor city across the Detroit River from Detroit, may be reached by auto tunnel or bridge.

United States citizens are expected to carry with them such personal papers as may be helpful in determining citizenship, and motorists must carry their automobile registration cards. Thus equipped, there should be no difficulty or delay in crossing the border. The family car will be admitted for personal use for as long as six months, without formal entry or payment of duty. Tourists may bring equipment to make their stay more enjoyable—fishing rods, cameras, canoes, tents, camp outfits, cooking utensils, and musical instruments. Additional travel information may be obtained at the Ontario Tourist Reception Centres, located at exits of tunnel and bridge.

Windsor is ideally situated in the "Sun Parlor" of Canada, with many nearby bathing beaches and resorts. There's wholesome fun and entertainment for every member of the family—swimming, boating, fishing, picnicking, riding, golfing, or just loafing on the beach.

The Windsor visitor soon realizes that he is the guest of a friendly, attractive city. With a population of 195,000 for the metropolitan area, Windsor is the fourth largest city in the Province of Ontario and fifth industrial center in Canada.

To see and appreciate this city properly, at least the major part of a day is required. For those who have several hours available to explore Windsor a printed tour guide may be obtained from the Ontario Government Tourist Reception Centres, at the tunnel and bridge exits, or at the Windsor Chamber of Commerce, Canada Building.

While attending the combined A.N.A.-C.N.A. convention plan to visit Windsor and the easy to reach vacation areas of Ontario in the heart of Canada.

Note

General Chairman Earl Schill advises that all bourse space for the combined American Numismatic Association and Canada Numismatic Association conventions is sold. Reasons? A share of the tables were assigned to the C.N.A., demand is overwhelming and popularity of the hobby has increased. Dealers are informed that transfer of table space is not permitted.

THE NEW FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF CAMEROUN

As from October 1, 1961, the former British-administered trust territory of Southern Cameroons and the Cameroun Republic have federated to form the Federal Republic of Cameroun. The former Southern Cameroons, whose capital is Buea, will be known as Western Cameroun; and the territory hitherto known as the Cameroun Republic, whose capital is Yaounde, will be called Eastern Cameroun. The capital of the federation will be Yaounde.

Apart from the immediate question of internal security and the more detailed constitutional and political changes to be made, unification will also mean a transition from one kind of institution, taxation system, and form of administration to another. In particular, there are different currencies, weights and measures, educational systems, and civil law, and differing policies on such things as tariffs, budgetary procedures, and commodity price stabilization. A timetable has been agreed upon for the currency changeover. The Nigerian pound will be replaced by the CFA franc at the beginning of 1962.

Obituaries

LEWIS M. REAGAN, LM 56 GENERAL SECRETARY

It is with profound sorrow that we must report that Lewis M. Reagan departed this life on December 29, 1961, at St. Francis Hospital in Wichita, Kans., after a two-month illness. The seriousness of his condition was unknown to the numismatic world. His sudden death, at the age of 57, was a severe shock to his thousands of friends all over the world.

Lewis Martin Reagan was born in Indianapolis, Ind., October 20, 1904, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reagan. He graduated from Missouri Valley College in 1924 and obtained his master's degree in mathematics from Kansas University. He became an educator and taught in various schools and universities including Kansas, Illinois, Wichita and Brooklyn Poly. He wrote mathematic textbooks and was also an Editor of a series of booklets on the subject. He was President of the Kansas Mathematics Association in 1950-1951.

His widow, the lovely Gabrielle Perreault, whom he married in 1931, survives him, as well as four daughters, Martha, Patricia, Norma, Linda and a son, Charles. Other survivors are: a son-in-law, George Lewis, Jr., a granddaughter, his mother, two sisters and five brothers.

Lew's interest in numismatics began in Brooklyn where he became President of the Brooklyn Coin Club. He joined the A.N.A. in 1935 as number 4751 and in 1940 became Life Member 56. He was a Fellow of the American Numismatic Society and the Royal Numismatic Society and a member, honorary member or officer of more local clubs and regional associations than any other person. He was appointed Director of Advertising and Publicity for the Association in 1935 and remained in that position until he was elected General Secretary in 1944, an office he has held since that date. When he received an Assistant Professorship, later Associate Professorship, at Wichita University, he moved his family and the A.N.A. offices to Wichita in 1946.

It was not generally known that he carried on the activities of the Secretary's office after school hours, on weekends and vacations. Together, with his late father and then his teenage daughters, they worked on many occasions far into the night to keep the affairs of the organization in top shape. Later, secretaries relieved him of some of this burden.

Calm in manner and with a midwestern drawl he accomplished tasks with such apparent ease that it belied the fact that he was truly a human dynamo for action. He would spend weekends and vacations traveling to the far corners of the nation, speaking at coin clubs, taking part in regional meetings or laying the groundwork for forthcoming national conventions. Lew also wrote many numismatic articles. Much of the credit for the phenomenal A.N.A. membership is due to the herculean efforts of this man. He sponsored a large percent of new members and thus established fraternal relationship with literally hundreds of collectors throughout the world. Somehow he even found time to correspond with them. As the organization grew, so did his list of numismatic friends. This fraternal spirit of the avocation meant far more to him than the coins in his collection.

Lew loved the A.N.A. and its members will forever carry a deep devotion to the amiable Secretary. He could, it seemed, always find time to listen to their whims or fanciful tales. The seriousness he evidently acquired in the classroom never overshadowed his wonderful sense of humor. His desk, at the big conventions, was the center of interest. His office in Wichita, a focal point of activity, where mountains of mail always waited for his personal perusal. His popularity attained such heights that members and officers alike looked upon him as the A.N.A. itself.

The genial Lew received the Farran Zerbe Memorial Award in 1954 and that same year he was presented with a special award from the A.N.A. members. Both were for distinguished service and his many contributions to the Association.

Funeral services were held at the Byrd-Snodgrass Colonial Chapel in Wichita with the Rev. Raymond H. Ahrens, Wichita University Chaplain, and Dr. Harry F. Corbin, Wichita University President, officiating. Honorary pallbearers were C. H. Ryan, Louis Werner, C. C. Shroyer, I. E. Rumpf, C. B. Edwards, Sol Kaplan; active pallbearers were VirDen Mayo, Floyd Hazelwood, Dr. Cecil B. Read, Dr. Harold Linscheid, Glenn Koester and Ted Hammer; most of these men are A.N.A. members. Besides President Shroyer,

Lewis M. Reagan

others of the A.N.A. official family present were the Editor of The Numismatist, Elston G. Bradfield, and his wife, and Assistant to the General Secretary, Don Sherer. Interment was at the Waco Wego Cemetery, Waco, Kans. In lieu of flowers, members of the family asked that contributions be made to the heart or cancer societies in Lewis M. Reagan's name.

Low Reagan has left our midst and our members have lost one of their dearest friends but in their hearts his memory is forever deeply enshrined. — JWO, Historian

Tributes to Lewis M. Reagan

In the passing of Lewis Reagan numismatics has lost a devoted scholar. The American Numismatic Association bids farewell to the most dedicated among thousands of members. Lew, as he was affectionately known, served the A.N.A. as General Secretary for eighteen years from 1944. The extra hours, the long weekends, spent in his Wichita office to insure a smoothly functioning Association are beyond calculation. Even as his strength ebbed away his thoughts and plans were for his university classes and the work ahead in the General Secretary's office. Nine A.N.A. presidents served with Lew, yet his was the continuity, the common sense, the steadying influence, the wealth of experience. In the years ahead the American Numismatic Association will be a living memorial to his scholarship, rare judgment, and devotion. — O. H. DONSON

All of us who knew him will experience a vast void in the knowledge that Lewis M. Reagan will no longer extend his helping hand to his many numismatic friends. We extend from our hearts, deepest sympathy. — HUGH M. KNIGHT, President, Chicago Coin Club

We have just learned of the loss of a great numismatist, Lewis M. Reagan, Secretary for many years for the American Numismatic Association. Certainly he will be greatly missed by the coin clubs and A.N.A. members he has served so faithfully for so long — PAUL S. OTIS, President, Club of Illinois Numismatists

Almighty God in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to call from our midst, on December 29, 1961, our beloved friend Lewis M. Reagan.

Lewis Reagan was a sincere friend and an honorary member of our Club. He was devoted to the American Numismatic Association serving as its General Secretary. He was devoted to numismatists everywhere, particularly those new in the great hobby. He was a bulwark of strength behind us in staging the 1961 Atlanta A.N.A. convention.

Mr. Reagan's passing brought to a close an active and forceful life, a life of usefulness to the organizations of which he was a member. He was a man of outstanding character, integrity and honesty. Everyone who knew him respected him as a man and felt the magnetic strength of his character.

We in whose memory he shall ever live take this means of expressing our deepest heartfelt sympathy to his family and loved ones.

Be it therefore resolved that in memory of Lewis M. Reagan, our beloved friend, this resolution be made a part of the minutes of this Club and a copy sent to his family and to the American Numismatic Association.

January second in the year of our Lord 1962. — ATLANTA COIN CLUB

I don't believe any of us realized, until his untimely death, how greatly we relied on Lew Reagan for the year to year growth and influence of the American Numismatic Association and the hobby of numismatics in general. He was a one-of-a-kind quiet, purposeful leader whom most of us took for granted. It was my privilege to have been associated with Lew during his early career in American Numismatic Association affairs and to have been a personal friend since the day we first met. I, for one, will miss him greatly.

— R. S. YEOMAN

The A.N.A. and Its Presidents

JUDSON BRENNER Ninth President, 1912 and 1913

By

JACK W. OGILVIE, LM 93, HISTORIAN

Judson Brenner of DeKalb, Ill., was the first person since William Jerrems, Jr., to be elected President without having previously held office in the Association (Dr. Wright had been Associate Editor of The Numismatist before his presidency). How this industrialist from the Chicago vicinity conducted the affairs of the organization is the text of this chapter.

Judson Brenner

A. Judson Brenner was born in Youngstown, Ohio, on June 27, 1862. He entered the business world shortly after graduation from high school and his vocation took him to a number of cities. He eventually located in DeKalb where he entered the wire and fencing business, organized a bank and became president of a drug concern. He was civic minded and became President of the Board of Education, the Board of Health, the Hospital Trustees and Citizens League. Fraternally, he was a 33 degree Mason and was named to head several top offices in the lodge including that of Grand Marshal in the Imperial Council of the Western Hemisphere. When he was mentioned for the presidency of the A.N.A., it seemed to be the consensus of opinion that another high office, more or less, was a matter of routine with him, so this was their man.

Brenner first joined the Association in January, 1901, as Number 236 but within a year or so dropped out. He became interested again in 1910 and re-entered as Number 1449. Previous to the last date, he joined the Chicago Numismatic Society and built up a sizeable collection of medals, Lincolnia, patterns and trade dollars. He possessed the rare 1884 and 1885 trade dollars, the dies to the Confederate cent and a number of pattern rarities, all of which he proudly exhibited at various numismatic gatherings.

The naming of a President at the 1911 Chicago convention brought back the strife prevalent at the 1909 Montreal meeting over dealers holding office in the Association. One faction believed that this created jealousy among the dealers themselves, so the highly respected dealer, Henry Chapman, was dropped from the Board. After two years, the fires still smoldered over this incident and Henderson's defeat of the dealer backed candidate. It was the opinion of many at the Chicago convention that harmony could be restored by selecting a candidate for the high office who was not in any way connected with either faction. Consequently, the way was paved for those familiar with the fraternal, civic and business background of the DeKalb industrialist to nominate him. When Burton Saxton, the only other person nominated, declined, A. Judson Brenner became ninth President without opposition.

Other results of the first mail ballot election were: Frank Duffield, First Vice President; Waldo Moore, General Secretary; Dr. Henderson and the controversial dealer, Henry Chapman, elected to the Board. Hold-overs were: R. W. McLachlin, H. O. Granberg, Wm. A. Ashbrook and Howland Wood. Edgar Adams became Editor and Business Manager of

The Numismatist with the famous numismatic scholar, Edward P. Newell named as Associate Editor. Thus, the new regime, with all factions harmonious, took command in January, 1912.

First on the agenda of the new group was the progress of the Federal Charter. After a four-hour fight on the House floor, staged by A.N.A. member and Congressman William Ashbrook and Arthur Kopp and aided by Wedemeyer of Michigan, the bill passed on January 30. Other officers, together with Ex-President Zerbe and S. Hudson Chapman appeared in behalf of the measure when it hit another snag in the Senate. Once ironed out in committee, the bill passed the upper house on April 23, and became a reality when signed by President Taft on May 9, 1912. Congressman Kopp of Wisconsin is the only surviving member of the original Charter group which saw the legislation through Congress but illness prevented his attendance at the renewal ceremonies May 16, 1961. Congressman John M. Ashbrook, son of the late William Ashbrook, was present.

The Rochester convention began August 26, and ran for three days. Attendance was fifty-five members and an unusually large number of visitors. Secretary Moore noted that the exhibits that year were perhaps the finest and most valuable ever brought together in the country. A group of numismatic notables including Ex-Presidents Heaton and Henderson, Dr. George P. French, Ben Green, and R. W. McLachlin made speeches or read papers. The necrology for the year included the name of Charles Steigerwalt, a well known Pennsylvania dealer.

President Brenner conducted the several meetings in an efficient and business-like manner. In his address to the body, he paid tribute to the numerous people who assisted and made possible the passage of the Federal Charter. He pointed out that, under its powers, the Association could legally accept The Numismatist as its absolute property, whereas previously only a trust deed had protected the organization, contingent upon incorporating. The Charter also made possible branch or corporate memberships.

Amid considerable fanfare, a resolution was unanimously adopted expressing thanks to Congressman William A. Ashbrook "...for his untiring zeal, personal sacrifices and devotion to further our interest in procuring the Charter." He was then awarded Honorary Membership. A second resolution called for accepting the generous gift of The Numismatist from William W. C. Wilson and making him an Honorary Member. A third Honorary Membership went to beloved Ex-President Joseph Hooper. There was no opposition in the election of officers, so the nominees were declared elected. Wynn Horner succeeded Converse as Treasurer and Harry Yawger replaced Ludgar Gravel as Librarian. The four Board members were replaced by S. Hudson Chapman, Carl Wurtzbach, Howard Newcomb and Dr. George P. French.

Quick to take advantage of the branch and corporate membership clause were the following clubs: Chicago, Rochester, New York, Newark, N. J., Springfield, Mass. and Boston. Western Pennsylvania became a branch in 1914. Somewhat prior to this time quite a number of the "old timers" returned to the fold but were assigned higher numbers. George Bauer, William Poillon, Dr. French and Henry C. Hines were among this group.

The financial report for the year 1912 revealed that Edgar Adams became the first salaried employee of the Association. As Editor and Business Manager of The Numismatist, he had been receiving the munificent salary of $60 per month! Well! At least, it was a starter. The February, 1913, issue came out with an entirely new and more modern cover. It supplanted the curliques and fancy affair with Old English lettering in use since the early days of its publication.

It was announced late in 1912 that a new five cent coin, more modern in design, would replace the current and very unpopular Liberty Head variety. The Director of the Mint, in a letter dated January 10, 1913, informed Commodore W. C. Eaton that "The old type of five cent piece will not be coined at all in 1913." On February 17, 1913, regular coinage started on the new "Buffalo nickel."

The 1913 Detroit convention was a five day affair attended by fifty-six members. The exhibits were exceptional and drew an estimated eleven hundred visitors on Sunday alone. They were displayed for the first time in cases provided by the A.N.A. President Brenner stated in his address that visitations included both the New York Numismatic Club and the American Numismatic Society. He revealed that as a result of an agreement with the A.N.S. to publish its reports in The Numismatist that four hundred of its members were to receive the magazine. This gave it the largest circulation of a numismatic publication in America, thus fulfilling Dr. Henderson's prophecy. The unity between the two large numismatic organizations, at that time and for many years later, was commendable. The "Grand Old Man" of American numismatics, Dr. H. R. Storer was made an Honorary Member but another was lost when William T. R. Marvin died the previous February.

The nominations for officers for the ensuing year pitted First Vice President Frank Duffield against an early member, Carl Wurtzbach. President Brenner accepted a nomination for the Board and was later elected, while Duffield received a large plurality of votes and became tenth President of the A.N.A. One of Brenner's last acts as President was to promote a revision in the bylaws that put the Association on a fiscal year ending just prior to the Convention instead of the calendar year as previously used. This made it necessary to nominate officers a few weeks ahead of the convention date with results tabulated, winners announced during the meeting and all officers assuming their duties immediately thereafter. This plan, with slight alterations, is presently in use.

The Brenner administration closed better off financially and numerically than at any time previously. Its 650 active members combined with those of its six branch and corporate clubs brought well over a thousand persons together to study and enjoy their avocation of numismatics. Prominent collectors who enrolled during his tenure were: Dr. Edward Plummer; William B. Osgood Field; Frederick C. C. Boyd; Charles H. Deetz; Louis Comparette, Curator of the U. S. Mint; Theodore Venn, a writer; and Dr. George Hetrich, an authority on Civil War tokens and store cards. Present day survivors are: Herbert A. Brand, Adam Pietz and Albert C. Hutchinson. Five of the six original clubs that joined are still members with only Newark, N. J. having dropped out. However, the Chicago Numismatic Society became the Chicago Coin Club in 1919.

Ex-President Brenner remained on the Board for two terms, then was elected Chairman for another in 1915-16. He took a prominent part in all conventions for the next ten years but a heart condition prompted curtailment of his numismatic activities in 1927. He died in the city of his birth, Youngstown, Ohio, on August 23, 1929, survived by his widow and four children by a former marriage.

CONCERNING BAR-KOKHBA COINS

The Israel Numismatic Society is preparing the publication of the sixth volume of the Corpus Nummorum Palaestinensium: The Coins of the Bar-Kokhba War which is written by Dr. L. Mildenberg of Zürich and Leo Kadman of Tel-Aviv.

As with the previous five volumes of the Corpus, we wish to include also in the coming one the greatest possible number of existing specimens of the various types. Therefore, we would be grateful if curators of Museums, as well as private collectors, who have coins of the Bar-Kokhba War (Second Revolt) in their possession, would kindly inform us about them. Write to the Israel Numismatic Society, Tel-Aviv, Israel, P.O.B. 392. — LEO KADMAN

Notes & Queries

Twentieth Annual Central States Convention

For the third time the Central States Numismatic Society, Milwaukee and its Hotel Pfister will be host to its annual convention. Collectors from the thirteen states of its area, as well as many from outside, will gather in the chief city of Wisconsin on May 4-6 for the Society's twentieth annual convention. They will find a hearty welcome by their host, the Milwaukee Numismatic Society, and facilities and arrangements for a memorable numismatic assembly.

The Pfister is located conveniently near the city's shopping area, the Memorial building housing art treasures, the public library and museum, and other attractions. The hotel itself is noted for its art collection housed on the first, mezzanine and seventh floors. All public rooms on the seventh floor are reserved for the bourse of over a hundred tables, and for meetings. The sixth floor will accommodate the competitive exhibits as well as a few special ones to be shown by invitation. Provisions have been made for a security room where valuables may be left, and for twenty-four-hour guard service.

Further details of the auction, ladies activities and banquet will appear later, but be assured now that careful arrangements have been made for all phases of this important convention. We do suggest that early reservations be made for accommodations at Hotel Pfister, but late-comers will be housed in nearby hotels. If you want to contact the General Chairman, or the Exhibits Chairman (A. P. Bert-

Mrs. Reagan Sends Note of Appreciation

Dear Mr. Bradfield:

I wish I could express personally our deep appreciation to our many friends in the American Numismatic Association for their kindness and consideration, their messages of sympathy and the knowledge that they shared with us in the passing of Lew. Hawaiian Coins in Gold Discovered by A. Kosoff

A. Kosoff, Encino, Cal. coin dealer, reports having seen a set of gold coins of Hawaii which includes the 1884 half dollar, 1884 quarter and an eighth dollar of 1883. Although he has previously reported the half dollar and quarter dollar in platinum, he thinks these in gold may be unique. An eighth dollar in gold was listed in Kosoff's original paper on the coins of Hawaii as being unique, but discovery of this second specimen takes the piece out of the unique class.

Texas Is Big

The Texas Numismatic Association celebrated its second birthday in January with 116 towns represented by membership, nine out of state members and one in Norway, according to Mrs. J. C. Jenkins, Secretary. Total membership is 545. The Texas association is the first to sponsor a youth program. "If readers think this is only a brag, visit our convention in Temple, Texas, in April," Mrs. Jenkins concludes.

Mrs. Raymond Identifies Some Old Time Numismatists

Dear Mr. Bradfield:

I found the picture of those attending the 1910 A.N.A. convention on page 1363, October, 1961, Numismatist interesting. I can positively identify Rud. Kohler, second row, first on left. To Max Mehl's right, the two gentlemen alone (third row) are I. to r., Elliott Smith and Dr. Daniel W. Valentine. The man beside Frank Duffield with moustache looks like Axel Julius de Lagerberg. Of course, they all appear much younger than I remember them.

Crippled Children Need Coin Books

Dear Editor:

The Hartford Numismatic Society sponsors a coin club at the Newington Hospital for Crippled Children in Newington, Conn. Ted Robbins (ANA No. 16771) is the leader of this club which has about forty members—some confined to wheel chairs and beds. The children would welcome coin books and other aids to their collecting, which may be sent to T. M. Robbins, 576 Hopmeadow St., Simsbury, Conn. The Society holds an auction each December for the benefit of the children's club, and usually nets around $75.

California's Spring Convention

Being the thirtieth semiannual convention of California State Numismatic Association, the host Sacramento Valley Coin Club is planning to excel all previous affairs on April 5 through 8, 1962. This spring affair will be held in the new and spacious El Dorado Hotel in Sacramento, California's historic state capital. Several innovations are planned, including a "Silver Dollar Hunt" in which several thousand silver dollars will go to the lucky finders. A new and modern type auction is promised by Don Lew Company which has several rare Colonial and ancient Roman pieces consigned, as well as modern scarcities in most denominations of coin and currency. The deadline for consignments, according to General Chairman Lew Walker, 4419 Orange Grove Ave., Sacramento 21, is February 1, and the catalog will be sent to CSNA members—and others who request it—the first week in March.

More than ten thousand square feet of space will be used for the bourse, exhibits and meetings, and those who want room accommodations will find a good choice of kinds and rates if they make reservations early. Many dealers have reserved bourse space at $55 each, including registration and one banquet ticket, and a sell-out is assured, according to Bourse Chairman Frank Roza, 4041 El Camino Way, Palo Alto. Several outstanding noncompetitive exhibits have been promised, including the first public showing of the Bank of America's quarter million dollar gold display, another equally valuable display by Ronnie Carr of Tulare, and a complete display of historic artifacts related to the Pony Express by the Pony Express Centennial Association. Collectors should contact Darvin L. Reisinger, 2307 Haldis Way, Sacramento 22 to reserve exhibit space.

Other features include a special medal to commemorate it, which will be available to those attending. The Friday evening forum will feature Col. Waddell F. Smith, a direct descendant of the Waddell of Russell, Majors and Waddell who founded the Pony Express. He will talk on "The Origin and History of the Pony Express." The ladies are in for a treat with a home decorating and arts and crafts demonstration at their Friday luncheon. Also, there will be tours of historic landmarks, including Sutter's Fort and the state capital buildings. And there will be drawings several times each day for door prizes, with several gold sets and single coins (including a $3 piece) held Saturday afternoon. Overall security is of top concern and elaborate provisions have been made to guard the exhibits and bourse area around the clock.

Louisiana Society Seeks Members

The newly organized Louisiana Numismatic Association has launched its first membership drive and hopes to increase membership from 168 to 500 by convention time, April 14-15, 1962. With the state divided into five districts, the captains and cocaptains of each will be competing in this drive. Applications are being sent to headquarters, P. O. Box 4013, Alexandria, and prizes will be awarded to the captains of the district that increases its membership the most, percentage-wise. The prizes will be awarded at the convention, to be held in the Washington-Youree Hotel in Shreveport. The Association invites, and will welcome to membership, all worthy persons fourteen years of age or older who have a sincere interest in numismatics, including coin clubs, schools, libraries, museums and kindred organizations. Its purposes are to promote and advance interest and comprehensive knowledge of numismatics, to cultivate friendly relations among collectors, to hold periodic meetings and exhibits, to provide a place to buy, sell and trade numismatic items, and to serve its members collectively.

The Association issues a monthly publication to members which, as one out-of-state member, put it "the LNA News is worth more to me than the membership fee." — JOHN H. BERT-RAND, Public Relations

Britain and the Decimal

On December 19, 1961, Selwyn Lloyd, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the House of Commons that the Government decided to set up a committee under the chairmanship of Lord Halsbury to "advise on the most convenient and practical form which a decimal currency might take." Halsbury, 53, is president of the Machine Tool Industry Research association, a governor of the British Broadcasting corporation and former President of the Institute of Production Engineers.

The Chancellor said the change would be made unless the committee reported that the operation entailed overwhelming difficulties. He said that the decimal system appeared to offer "real advantages" to Britain but warned that the alteration would be costly. The committee will report next year.

Gilroy Collection

Goes to Empire Company

Empire Coin Company, Inc. announces the purchase of the collection of United States copper, silver and colonial coins formed by Edward A. Gilroy of Wayland, New York. The collection is remarkable for the choice condition of the coins, ranging from half cents to silver dollars.

Of outstanding interest are the large cents, complete from 1793 to 1857. Collectors will welcome the beautiful 1793 chain AMERI cent, the finest specimen to appear on the market within recent years. The 1799 cent is the original Sylvester S. Crosby specimen and is one of the finest known of this rarity. The 1804, a superb specimen, was obtained from the well-known collection of Hillyer C. Ryder. Most of the late date cents from 1816 to 1857 are select uncirculated examples, as are a number of the earlier coins. Following the large cents is an attractive collection of small cents highlighted by an 1856 flying eagle cent in proof.

SOCIETY OF MEDALISTS: 64TH ISSUE

The Society of Medalists, 115 E. 40th St., New York City, has released the sixty-fourth medal in its continuing series. Nat Choate is the sculptor and Medallie Arts Co., the producer.

Born in Southboro, Mass. in 1899, the artist graduated from Harvard in 1922 and studied under Edward Forbes, Paul Sachs, John Wilson and at the Colarossi and Delecluse Academy of Paris. He is recipient of the Medal of Honor of the Architectural League of New York.

His many works include bronze busts of Governor Robert Bradford of Massachusetts and of Justice Roberts; bas-reliefs for the Federal Building at the New World's Fair; the Pitman, New Jersey Post Office;

Obverse

Reverse

the "Alligator Bender" for the Brookgreen Gardens at Brookgreen, S. C.; and an enlarged medal for the Corn Exchange Bank.

More recently he has done various pieces for the S. S. United States; and "Orpheus and Eurydice," two life-sized bronzes which are placed in the Brookgreen Gardens. In 1957 he completed a number of sculptures for the American Battle Monument at Hamm, Luxembourg.

In this medal the artist suggests that David and Goliath are quite appropriate for the idea here represented. Preparation for any encounter is not an end in itself. This design is made to suggest a Renaissance medal with its high relief and very full content, enriched by reduction and patina. The bluster of preparation and the energies of arming are all about Goliath — while the quieter and more peaceful surroundings of David emphasize that the storm is over and the rewards are being placed away for future enjoyment.

It is a gentle reminder that war is not the aim of life and that sometimes a small effort at the right moment and well directed is better than all the armaments in the world. That youth, too, with a fresh outlook can make little of the greatest obstacles.

NEW BOLIVIAN MONETARY UNIT

A new monetary unit, to be called the Bolivian peso, was scheduled to be introduced in Bolivia on January 1, 1962. The new unit will be equal to a one thousand old bolivianos, so that twelve thousand bolivianos, approximately the equivalent of our dollar, will be equal to twelve Bolivian pesos.

California Gold and the Civil War

By

HERBERT M. BERGEN, A.N.A. No. 7287

Paper presented to the American Numismatic Association convention
August 17, 1961

When James Marshall, in January, 1848, discovered gold at Sutter's Mill on a small creek tributary to the American River in northern California, he could not possibly have realized the great importance and profound effect his discovery would have on the course of American history in the succeeding decades. When news of his momentous find reached the rest of the nation and the outside world, there was a feverish flow of immigrants from everywhere to California to share the wealth that was waiting there. This migration still stands as one of the greatest events of its kind since Columbus discovered the New World.

A little more than a decade earlier several small gold fields were found in North Carolina and Georgia, but they were already on the decline. Miners, when they heard of the fabulous new strike in California, packed up their picks and started the long overland journey to the new El Dorado where the yields were reportedly unbelievably high and the region of mineral enrichment so extensive that it would cover most of the State of Georgia.

Time proved that these wild claims were not much exaggerated. The gold resources of California turned out to be the greatest known anywhere in the world. Production from them was preëminent for more than half a century. When it was no longer easy to strike it rich by panning gravel on the surface of existing streams, deep mining by means of drifts and tunnels driven into buried gravels of antecedent Tertiary rivers brought forth even greater yields of gold. This was followed by the mass production method of hydraulic placer mining which returned still greater yields. Finally, hard rock miners followed surface out-crops of gold ore downward by boring and blasting until they reached great depths, still recovering large quantities of pay ore.

No contemporary records of total gold production were kept during the early years, but a review of customs receipts and mint reports has permitted reasonably good estimates to be made. A table published by the California State Mining Bureau in the thirteenth annual report of the State Mineralogist shows the dollar value of California gold production from 1848 to 1874 as estimated by Louis A. Garnett, a San Francisco mining statistician.

Year	Gold Production	Year	Gold Production

This record shows that in the first quarter century of production California gave up nearly a billion dollars from its huge treasure of gold. At the end of another quarter century the State was still a large producer. It was sometimes pressed by later gold discoveries, but none in the Western Hemisphere was able to surpass it in total value, not even the famous deposits that were found in Alaska on the Yukon and the Klondike at the close of the century.

While the Argonauts were driving their covered wagons over the dusty, rutted trails through thousands of miles of prairies, deserts, and mountains in quest of riches, ominous clouds of civil strife were gathering over the Union of American States. By the time the initial rush of Forty Niners was over and mining became an established industry, the storm of Civil War broke over the nation in a fury of marching and musket fire, cannonading and sabre slashing, that lasted for four full years from 1861 to 1865.

When James Marshall found gold at Sutter's Mill, California was a newly occupied territory that had only recently been wrested from Mexican rule. But the magic of gold soon brought the territory into political prominence. Fast development of its great mineral wealth focused attention of the nation on its growing importance. So it was not long before admission to the Union as a state was sought by the inhabitants.

California, colonized and ruled by Spaniards for over a hundred years, was a storied land of vast ranchos, hospitable haciendas, peaceful missions, and a few small pueblos that could hardly be called cities. Cattle and sheep grazed the green valleys that threaded through the picturesque mountains called Sierras. Rural life dominated the economy. As such it had much in common with the Southern States. In fact, many had come west from there before the lure of gold became the magnet of migration, and they kept the political feelings of their home states. Most of the sparse population lived in southern California, but the rapid influx of miners and adventurers to the Mother Lode region in 1849 soon tipped the population scale in favor of the northern half of the territory.

Thus it was, that when statehood became an issue, there was a divided political opinion between rural southern California and the increasingly urban and industrialized Alta California. The former was sympathetic to the views that prevailed in Southern States, while the latter adhered to the beliefs that predominated in Northern States. This resulted in a strong attempt to divide the territory and form two separate states. Admission of a pro-Northern state would thus be balanced by a pro-Southern state which would keep intact the equal division of votes between the two opposing political forces in the United States Senate.

But the flow of immigrants to the gold fields was mainly from the North and in the end they dictated the decision to ask for admission of California as one state. Statehood was granted on September 9, 1850, after Congress reached a compromise whereby the admission of California as a Free State would be offset by later admission of Kansas as a possible Slave State.

After statehood was granted, the people in southern California still wanted to form a separate state. Attempts were made at each session of the legislature to bring this about. In 1859 a bill to form two states was passed and signed by the Governor. However, it was never approved by Congress where Northern States now held a thin voting edge which they feared would be lost by such action.

In the early years of the Gold Rush there was an urgent need of coins as a medium of exchange. It was impractical to ship sufficient coins to the far west from eastern Mints. Not being willing to wait for the government to act, the miners began to strike coins from the gold they mined. Private coinage continued without objection by the Government until it established a branch Mint at San Francisco in 1854. After that private coinage was limited to dollar and fractional dollar pieces in gold, known as "California pocket pieces."

With so much gold being produced nearby, the new Mint for many years issued more gold coins, totaling much greater value, than silver coins. It struck all authorized denominations from one to twenty dollars. In the years before the Civil War started, excepting the first year, 1854, it struck an average of nearly twenty million dollars annually. The estimated average annual production of gold in California for that period was about fifty million dollars. The thirty million dollars which was not used for coinage was shipped to east coast ports or exported to foreign countries, mainly England and China, according to customs records. Most of the gold that was shipped to eastern ports was destined for government use, primarily for gold coinage at the Philadelphia Mint.

Mint records show that the output of gold coins at Philadelphia in 1850, as a result of the California Gold Rush, rose to nearly twenty-eight million dollars from an annual average of less than four million dollars during the preceding ten year period in which the gold fields of North Carolina and Georgia were being developed. After 1850 the gold coinage at Philadelphia increased to as much as fifty million dollars annually. But in 1854, when the branch Mint at San Francisco was opened, the gold issue fell to about twenty million dollars. The next year it was down to ten million dollars and it continued to go down until it was only about a million dollars in 1859.

However, with war impending gold coinage was sharply up to twelve million dollars in 1860, and in 1861 it jumped to nearly seventy million dollars, an amount not equalled or surpassed by the Philadelphia Mint until 1904 when it was flooded with gold from Alaska.

Gold coinage at Philadelphia for the remaining years of the Civil War was down to an average per year of five million dollars, due partly to the restrictive effects of the war on shipping, both by sea and overland, and partly to the fact that the branch Mint in the west was able to coin as much gold as was currently needed for coins. The San Francisco output during the four war years totalled over seventeen million dollars yearly.

These records reveal the close relationship of economic conditions that prevailed before and during the Civil War years to the management of gold holdings by the Northern States. To carry on an all out war it was necessary to make huge expenditures of money and this required large scale financing or borrowing. Congress authorized big issues of paper money on which it promised to pay a high yearly interest in gold. Gold was therefore essential to the conduct of the war from the beginning, and with mounting financial needs it became more and more essential until at the end of the war it made up much of the difference between victory and defeat. On this premise we arrive at the logical conclusion that California gold, the primary source that supplied the Northern States, played a most important role in the outcome.

Conversely, the lack of gold by the Confederate States to back their war finances was a fundamental factor in bringing about their defeat. Their gold resources consisted chiefly of small, partly depleted gold fields in North Carolina and Georgia. The three branch Mints at Charlotte, Dahlonega, and New Orleans, had, since their establishment in 1838, minted relatively minor amounts of gold coins from gold mined in these southern fields. The Mints were in operation when the war began, but they had only small stocks of bullion and so had to shut down. There was no attempt to resume gold coinage by any of them, even though some gold must have been mined from these old deposits. This was no doubt cast into bars and held as such by the government which was found to be holding $76,000 in bullion gold when the war closed.

Failure of Confederate financiers to make any early moves to acquire gold assets was probably due to their reliance on their prime product, cotton, which the South controlled and firmly believed it could use as the backbone of their war finances. But the blockade by the Northern fleet soon became so completely effective that no goods could be exported from Southern ports. This was a crippling blow to Confederate economy and greatly weakened their war potential. By this time it was too late to look for gold.

That the North was fully aware of the vital importance of California and its wealth of gold is evidenced by the fact that, when war first threatened, military forces were stationed at several key points in the State. Trouble was anticipated in southern California where the most of the Southern sympathizers were known to reside. A company of soldiers was kept at San Bernardino, a town of one thousand inhabitants, for the reason that open hostility to the Union cause had been expressed by a group of miners in the Holcomb Valley in the San Bernardino Mountains. This military detachment remained there during the entire war.

Southern supporters around Los Angeles also had formed a secret society that called itself the "Knights of the Golden Circle." It held meetings at which means for helping the South were discussed. The only overt move that resulted from this was the Showalter Expedition designed to send enlistments for the Confederate Army out of the State to Arizona Territory and thence to Texas. But this expedition only reached as far as Temecula where the leaders were taken into custody and the members dispersed. Soon afterward a column of one thousand five hundred volunteers under command of Union officers marched into Arizona from California to clean out any Southern elements they thought would be a threat to California.

In 1863 there was a last effort by friends of the Confederacy to give assistance. This was known as the Judge Hastings Plan. The originator, Judge Hastings of Los Angeles, had asked the Confederate Army for help to implement his plan of action. Receiving no answer he made a long round-about journey through Mexico to ask President Jefferson Davis for help. But he failed to get approval and nothing ever came of his plan.

These were feeble efforts to bring California and its gold treasure over to the Confederate side. There were reports of plots to waylay overland stages carrying gold east to the Mint at Philadelphia, but reliable records and reports fail to disclose actual operations of this kind, notwithstanding any fiction and television stories to the contrary. Holdups occurred, of course, but as usual these were the work of outlaws who were loyal to no cause except their own.

Although the Northern States had an overwhelming advantage in financing their part in the war because they had virtually complete control of nearly all of the nation's gold resources, they nevertheless had many problems and obstacles to overcome. The enormous sums of money needed to prosecute the war made it necessary to resort to borrowing and use of credit. Before the war the Federal Government and banks had outstanding fifty million dollars in paper obligations. On June 30, 1861 the Federal debt totaled ninety million dollars. On June 30, 1862 it reached five hundred fourteen million.

In July, 1861 Congress approved an Act to issue sixty million dollars in Demand Notes, an unprecedented sum. Again, in February, 1862, Congress authorized the issue of new notes, called Legal Tender Notes, amounting to one hundred million dollars, another unheard of sum. But even this would not suffice to bring the war to an end.

Interest payments on all outstanding paper obligations of the Federal Government were payable in gold. Total interest paid for the fiscal year ending in June, 1862 was twenty-two million dollars. This big gold payment caused the premium on gold to rise from 5% in January, 1862 to 10% in July, 1862. The rapid rise of gold premiums and the resultant discounting of paper money forced Congress to refinance some existing obligations with new issues on which the interest was payable in paper money and not in gold.

In 1863 new issues of paper money were authorized by Congress. These amounted to six hundred million dollars of interest bearing notes. This vast sum reflected the spiraling costs of war. Prices were rising rapidly under the effects of paper money inflation. The financial status of the Treasury was becoming alarming. With rising gold premiums it was forced not only to make the interest payable in paper currency but to compound the interest for a period of three years so the notes would be accepted. By compounding the interest it was possible to pay a somewhat lower rate than the 7.3% rate that was paid on the old interest bearing notes of July, 1861 and the later ones of June, 1864, and March, 1865. This was the highest interest ever paid by the Federal Government. Fractional currency added also to the immense amount of paper money in circulation.

Despite measures taken by Congress to reduce the gold premium, gold continued to rise. In July, 1864 it reached the high point of 290 cents in paper money needed to buy a gold dollar. The following table of gold prices shows the trend of the premium brought by gold in exchange for paper money during the period from January, 1862 to June, 1865.

As the emission of paper money multiplied and the premium on gold increased hard money soon disappeared from circulation. People slowly became reconciled to paper money, but while doing so they hoarded hard money, even copper cents. Substitutes for small change came into use in the form of postage stamps and metal tokens issued by merchants.

The resort to paper money and other substitutes for hard money extended to all parts of the North except California where newly mined gold was plentiful and the people had a deep distrust of paper money. Here business and exchange continued on a gold basis. Even small change coins were of gold, being struck privately in quarter, half, and one dollar denominations, to which the government did not object. Only payments by the government of its dues and obligations, except interest due in gold, was made in paper money. Those who had to accept payment in paper money were at a great disadvantage because it would not circulate and they could not buy goods without gold. Currency had to be exchanged for gold at a heavy discount exacted by brokers who sent it east for use in paying for merchandise sold in California. It was also used to pay taxes to the government. Later, when it became apparent that the North would win the war, speculators bought all they could at discount prices with the expectation that it would bring par value at the end of the war or at the latest on the due dates of the notes. Thus the position of gold in California was paramount in all matters of finance.

At the close of the fiscal year ending in June, 1864, the total debt of the Union was 1,744 million dollars. Interest, amounting to 42 million dollars, still had to be paid in gold during the fiscal year on seven hundred million dollars of the funded debt. This was a dreadful drain of the gold reserve and would not have been met had it not been for the prolific gold production in California.

When the war came to an end in April, 1865, it had brought about a debt load to the Union of 2,757 million dollars which was unparalleled in the history of any country in the world up to that time. Eventually the gold fields of California produced enough wealth from gold production to pay this debt, but, unfortunately, there was no gold source in the South that would pay the war cost of the Confederacy, estimated at 1,500 million dollars.

This account of the costs of the Civil War and the means that were employed by the Northern States to finance their share of it clearly demonstrates that the production of gold by California during and preceding the war was a most vital contribution in that it served to maintain the strong financial structure and the credit that was required to prosecute and win such a costly conflict. At the same time it lets us understand why the Southern States, starting the war without any substantial gold resources to support their financial needs, were thus doomed to ultimate defeat, no matter how brilliant their military leaders, how brave their fighting men, and how valiant their women, in the fruitless sacrifice for a lost cause.

BANK OF ISSUE FOR MALAGASY REPUBLIC

An agreement signed on October 5, 1961, between French and Malagasy representatives, terminates the note issue privilege of the Banque de Madagascar et des Comores and confers it on a new national institute of issue to be known as Institut Malgache d'Emission. This transfer was envisaged in the agreements for financial coöperation between France and the Malagasy Republic signed on June 27, 1960, following Madagascar's independence. The Malagasy Republic will be the first of the African countries associated with France to have its own bank of issue.

The existing monetary relations between the two countries will not be changed. The CFA franc, presently circulating in Madagascar, will be retained at its present value. The Banque de Madagascar et des Comores will continue to serve as a bank of issue for the Comoro Islands, and as a commercial bank there and in Madagascar. — Marchés Tropicaux et Méditerranéens, October 14, 1961.

The two Mints now in operation in the United States are located at Philadelphia and Denver. Coinage operations were discontinued at the San Francisco Mint in March of 1955 for reasons of economy and the plant is now functioning as an assay office. Coins minted at Denver are identified by the small letter "D"; those which were made at San Francisco carry the letter "S"; those minted at Philadelphia are identified by the absence of a mint mark, with one exception, the war-time five cent piece minted in Philadelphia.

CENTURY 21 EXPOSITION MEDALS

A set of nine Seattle Century 21 World's Fair commemorative medals in both silver and bronze are now being struck and will be mounted in a custom built world's fair volume made by the world famous Whitman Publishing Company. The set includes the first United States official commemorative space age medal, authorized by Congress and struck in silver and bronze on a $1\frac{5}{16}$ inch planchet. The space age medal was designed by George Tsutakawa of the University of Washington Art Department. In the United States space age commemorative medal he conveys his impressions of the vast complexities to be found in the little known regions of outer space, on the obverse he displays the majestic towering space needle and the gigantic soaring roofed Century 21 colosseum.

The balance of eight medals are to be struck in silver and bronze in $1\frac{9}{10}$ inch diameter, each depicting a major attraction of the Seattle World's Fair, included are the space needle, the monorail, the million dollar display, the world of science, the world of century 21, the world of commerce and industry, the world of entertainment, and the world of art. Each medal is encompassed by the "jet-swept" lettered rim and struck in extremely high relief, setting forth a new standard in medallic beauty for the future.

Only fifteen thousand official silver sets are being made, of these ten thousand are being released to the public at this time on a first come first served basis. The balance of five thousand medals must be retained to afford a few sets for purchase to the ten million people attending the Fair.

Distribution is by Century 21 Medals, Northwest Historical Medals, 702 S. Ninth St., P. O. Box 652, Walla Walla, Wash. in a series of tie-in sales. For prices or other information, write the distributor.

The booklet entitled "Domestic Coin Manufactured by Mints of the United States Since Organization to Include the Year 1958" is sold by the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. Notice that "Indiana" does not appear on this note which is dated May 2, 1816. D. C. Wismer listed $1, $2, $5, $5, $10 and $10 notes of the Bank of Vincennes but had no descriptions of them.

This concludes the descriptive listing of paper money of Indiana, which was started in the February, 1961 issue. It has been based on the author's own collection which includes a total of 558 Indiana notes representing sixty-five chartered banks, nine personal banks, five railroads, three insurance companies, nine canal and road companies, eight towns, three schools, twelve factories and thirty-seven personal and miscellaneous issues. Some of these might be considered duplicates, such as part of the 133 proofs of which the same regular issue notes are included. In addition, D. C. Wismer's listing in The Numismatist, Vol. 37, Nos. 1, 3 and 4, was checked and notes therein which are not in my collection were included. Notes of the branch banks of the State Bank of Indiana and the Bank of the State of Indiana were not listed individually, due to space limitations, which is another reason for the listing not checking with the number of notes in my collection.

Of course, errors probably have occurred in spite of my own care and checking of the manuscript by Assistant to the Editor Smedley. One has been found by a reader—the Blair's Gap note No. 23-A is a Pennsylvania note. I will appreciate hearing of any other error or of any unlisted note which another collector has. No attempt was made to identify all counterfeits as they are at least facsimiles of issued notes.

It is my hope that the collection may be kept intact, and I will be happy to answer questions about it to the best of my ability.

NATIONAL COIN WEEK OF 1962

Theme of this year's National Coin Week, sponsored by the American Numismatic Association, is "Coinage of Nations." Date is April 28-May 6.

The thought of the first international numismatic convention to be held in the New World—the combined A.N.A. and C.N.A. (Canadian Numismatic Association)—inspired the NCW committee to choose such a theme. This is a very broad topic and should not prevent any collector or club from competing for the beautiful awards to be given at the national meeting in Detroit.

The contest rules have been broadened and are more specific and inclusive. Rules will be mailed to A.N.A. clubs March 1. Individuals should request entry blanks and supplies direct from the General Chairman.

Let's all work for a bigger and better National Coin Week for 1962.

The Panhandle Coin Club nominated officers for 1962 at its November 15

Panhandle's nominating committee, I. to r., were Ted Kadlecak, Jr., Marie Clark, Bonnie Walters, Paul Nedcalf, Bill Schlickbernd and a visitor meeting and elected them at the December 6 meeting, as follows: president, Frank Schell; vice president, Red Woodward; secretary, Bonnie Walters; treasurer, Don Briggs; librarian, Gordon Carsons; reporter, Ted Kadlecak, Jr.; and trustees Bill Richards (one year), Ed Coates (two years) and Jack Mohler (three years). Ed Coates displayed a five pound British coin, and Don Briggs a proof set of coins suspended in a plastic paper weight. The Club compliments President Frank Schell on his article in Coin World. — TED KADLECEK, JR., Rep.

The recommendation of the nominating committee was approved unanimously at the December 8 meeting of Oak Park (Ill.) Coin Club, with the result that the following are the 1962 officers: president, Salvatore Genualdi; vice president, Fred I. Catalano; secretary, James Babka; treasurer, S. A. Van Petten; and governor, Laurence Brueck.

Retiring President James Grebinger will serve as a governor also during 1962. The secretary reported that our membership has increased during the past year to 176 without any particular effort to get new members. Fine exhibits were by Dennis Anderson, Dennis Ciechna, Don Doswell, Harry Flower, Vasilios Katasgiannis, Elmer Moller, Francine Momen, Kenneth Saville, Glenn Smedley and Jim Grebinger. The latter exhibited types of misprinted paper money and gave an interesting talk on how the Bureau prints money and how errors occur. The short talks on our exhibits and discussions of them are important features of each meeting. — S. A. VAN PETTEN, Sec.

At the December 5 meeting of Dearborn (Mich.) Coin Club, officers for 1962 were elected as follows: president, Donald Squires; vice president, Darwin Skelton; treasurer, Charles Lange; secretary, Richard Tomczak; sergeant-at-arms, Robert Stiver; and directors, Ted Jarvis and C. A. M. Smith. Plans were discussed for the December 19 Christmas Party, which will include catered food service, refreshments, music and a hundred lot auction. Those wishing to attend any of our meetings or to join the Club may contact the secretary on LO 1-6836. — RICHARD TOMCZAK, Sec.

Thirty-eight members and guests attended the November 25 meeting of Toronto Coin Club when J. H. Mackenzie spoke on medals and plaster models he had on display. Perhaps the most interesting of these were the two medals which the National Parks Branch of the Canadian Department of Interior made and issued in 1926-27 to Indians and Eskimos who recovered and reported banded birds. Today Canadian Wildlife receives the reports and issues medals, but the earlier medals are quite scarce. The officers elected at this meeting for 1962 are: president, Mrs. Louise Graham; vice president, Blake Graham; secretary, Miss K. M. Richards; treasurer, F. C. Jewett; and directors, Hamilton A. Craig, Mrs. Retta Frampton and Miss Elizabeth Wyn Wood. The president appointed Harvey Farrow librarian, and Hamilton A. Craig editor. — K. M. RICHARDS, Sec.

Forty-eight attended the December meeting of Old Capitol (Iowa) Coin Club. Highlight was the appearance of professional auctioneer Munroe Yoder, who humorously described his lack of numismatic knowledge, and then applied his experience with steers and hogs to describe and auction off almost one hundred lots. The A.N.A. slide set of commemorative half dollars was shown, and a complete set of the half dollars was exhibited. Members were reminded that the election of officers will take place at the January meeting. President Bob Shea announced that Wyard Troja, President of the Iowa Numismatic Association, had accepted our invitation to speak at a meeting in the near future. — TED N. WEISSBUCH, Publ. Chm.

The third annual Walla Walla Coin Club's Rendezvous has been lengthened to three days March 16-18 at the Marcus Whitman Hotel Walla Walla Wash. Auctioneer Robert Burggraf promises largest and best coin auction ever seen in the city. General Chairman is Robert Naimy. Committee members include Ray Small, Jr., Barnev Tomlinson, Dan Reeder, Lawrence McBride and Eddie MacMurdo. The latter is Club Vice President and may be reached at P. O. Box 321, Walla Walla, Wash.

Members and guests attending the December 11 meeting of the Santa Barbara Coin Club enjoyed viewing A.N.A. slides on "Confederate Currency." This particular set has a sound tape so that we heard a clear description of each slide, which made for a very successful showing. Special refreshments were served and each person attending received a very nice coin wallet courtesy of Santa Claus (Don Jurgensen). In line with the current trend, it was decided that the January meeting would be devoted to medals. One new member, No. 163, was welcomed into the Club. — GWEN SENTIS, Sec.

Highlight of the 46th meeting of the Glendale (Calif.) Coin Club on December 18 was a most interesting talk on U.S. coins by R. A. Wilson, author of the American Standard Book of U.S. coins. He presented the Club with the Thirtieth edition and another book to be auctioned for the benefit of the Club. We welcome visitors to our meetings which are held in the Tuesday Afternoon Club, corner of Lexington and Central avenues on the third Monday evening each month. — ESTELLE K. POWERS, Rec. Sec.

With an attendance of two hundred fifteen, the Los Angeles Coin Club held its December meeting on the first day of the month and took in seven new members. Guests were Stephen H. Bibler, founder of the Seattle Coin Club, and Roy Hill of San Francisco. Two departed members, Harry S. Davidson of Portland and Clarence L. Hawley of Huntington Park, were revered by a minute of silence. Mel Scott of the Southern California Gas Company talked on the uses and abuses of natural gas, and his table top demonstration was most interesting. Officers for 1962 were elected as follows: president, Walter Snyder; first vice president, Thomas Wood; second vice president, Herb Runner; treasurer, Sid Barnett; secretary, Elizabeth Goodson; corresponding secretary, Ann Hall; sergeant-at-arms, Foster Hall; and directors, George Bennett, Paul Freestone, R. P. Goodson, W. J. Poggione, Murray Singer and Russell Snyder. They will take office at the January 5 meeting. Much favorable comment was heard regarding the displays of the evening by B. Axlerod, Grace Brainard, Thelma Case, Elizabeth Goodson, Dr. Charles Hardbeck, Pauline Ney and William Koonce, the latter being awarded the prize for the best exhibit — CAROLYN OLSON, Corr. Sec.

At the December 1 meeting of South Bend (Ind.) Coin Club, the following officers were elected, to take office at the January 5 meeting: president, Henry Lezak (re-elected); vice president, Thomas Compton; secretary, Walter White (re-elected); treasurer, Ray Rogusta; financial secretary, Larry Locke; sergeant-at-arms, Craig Fries; librarian, Tommy Compton. Two new directors, Mrs. J. C. Graham and Wayne Marshall, were elected to serve with holdover directors John Deren, Jake Lemarr and Arthur Merritt. Our meetings are held the first Friday evening and next to last Sunday afternoon monthly at the YMCA Building, Main at Wayne St. The Club's address is P. O. Box 843, South Bend 24, Ind. — WALTER WHITE, Sec.

Sixty-six members and guests attended the November meeting of Union County Coin Club at the Polish National Hall in Linden, N. J. President Goodman

Lee Goodman, at r., is giving a coin to Arthur Fry as a starter toward replacing the boy's stolen collection discussed the Christmas party. We learned of the theft of a collection valued at $150 from twelve year old Arthur Fry of Colonia. The collection was taken from his school library where he had put it on display. Dealers present donated coins from their stocks to aid the youth in starting a new collection. — LEE GOODMAN, Pres.

Howard Rosenberg spoke on "Why Collect Paper Money" at the December 4 meeting of Washington (D. C.) Numismatic Society. He stressed no date series in paper money, but that there are many systematic ways to form note collections. Officers for 1962 were elected as follows: president, Herbert Price; vice president, G. H. Sandy; treasurer, Eldridge Jones; secretary, Mae L. Clarke; sergeant-at-arms, Paul Burdette; and governors, Sedgewick Moss and Neil Shafer. — JOSEPH A. CLARK, Sec.

Sol Alexander spoke at the November meeting of San Gabriel Valley Coin Club in the Huntington-Sheraton, Pasadena. Sol will go to almost any extreme to obtain a new piece for his Mexican gold collection, as the incident he related proves. He and Mrs. Alexander headed for a remote Mexican town from which he had heard of a very limited issue of a gold commemorative piece. Conversation with a Mexican motel manager resulted in the man driving them into the town and straight to the local bank. Yes, the bank had one but it was to be sent as an inaugural gift to the new president. The motel keeper (who, it turned out,) was an important figure in the little town) convinced the bank that "This American needs it to help complete his collection of Mexican gold coins," so Sol's trip ended in complete success. He has many other interesting stories relating to acquiring pieces for his nearly complete collection. Speaking of early Mexican coinage, Sol told of the first Western Hemisphere mint being established in 1536 and how, from that date until 1821, well over two billion dollars was coined. The Mexican 1, 2, 4 and 8 escudo gold and the silver real coins were legal tender in our country until 1857. His interesting talk was very informative. President Alva Christensen appointed Dick and Dorothy Howekotte cochairmen for the annual dinner and installation of officers in March. Jack Parrish exhibited his recently completed set of Swiss shooting talers; and other fine exhibits were by Dorothy Howekotte, Bill Fisher, Newton Sanders, Pat Kelly, Jean Bradford, Ethel R. Stone, M. H. Bolender and Alva Christensen. — ETHEL R. STONE, Corr. Sec.

Members of Albuquerque Coin Club were treated to an unusual account of coin collecting during World War II at their November 20 meeting. Charles Rettinger related how he became interested in ancient coins after reading a history of the area in a USO library. After learning the language of the country and acquainting himself with local customs, he was able to acquire a most unusual collection of ancient Persian and Arabian coins by trading with the villagers. The climax of his talk was a hair-raising account of defending himself against roving bandits who heard that he had a fortune in coins in a footlocker. Except during the November and December holidays, we meet the last Monday each month and welcome visitors, who can learn of our next meeting place from the Chamber of Commerce or the public library. — EDNA P. FITZ, Publ. Chm.

The Kalamazoo Numismatic Club and the Climax Coin Club will sponsor a County coin show April 13-15 at the Burrick Hotel in Kalamazoo, Mich. The show will open at 3 p.m. on Friday and continue until 6 p.m. Sunday. Dealers wanting tables and collectors planning to make displays may obtain further information from the writer at 68 Kelly St., Battle Creek, Mich. There will be an auction, also. — ALBERT BOBROFSKY, Publ. Chm.

Members of the Clarion (Iowa) Coin Collectors held their December meeting in the new quarters five blocks south of the stop light. Features of the evening were a lively auction and refreshments of coffee and donuts. All collectors will be welcomed to future meetings. — MRS. HARRY PETERS, Rep.

Members of the Waco (Texas) Coin Club presented Retiring President James Goddard an engraved plaque at a Christmas banquet in Bertrand's Restaurant. Incoming President John Barrett made the presentation. Other officers who will serve with Barrett are B. O. Miller, vice president; Sidney Henson, secretary-treasurer; and K. K. Tidwell, corresponding secretary. Tidwell spoke at the meeting on Biblical coins, mentioning the widow's mite which was worth about thirty-seven cents. In ancient days coins were weights of metal, and the gold and silver were saved to take to priests as religious gifts. Mrs. Olga Goddard, mother of the retiring president, who has recently returned from three yeras in Europe, spoke on some of her experiences. She said that our money is accepted everywhere in Europe. She found that Europeans always knew the value of the American dollar. L. L. Edmonds, vice president, missed his first Christmas meeting since the Club was organized in 1947, due to sustaining a broken hip in a fall during the week. — WACO TRIBUNE-HERALD.

At the request of the Director of Youth's Activities, the Waco YMCA

Youth's Coin Club has been formed with the assistance of members of the Waco Coin Club. Elected officers are: president, Douglas Scoggins; vice president, Carl Knappe; and secretary, Donald Jameson. Meetings will be held the third Friday monthly, with members of the senior club attending to assist the boys and present programs from time to time. The writer gave a short talk and conducted a question and answer period at the December 15 meeting, but the boys will be encouraged to provide some of their own programs as we feel that this will help them get the most from their Club. KALVERT K. TIDWELL

There are problems and amusing incidents in getting any club "off the ground," but this is especially true of a bi-lingual coin club in a foreign country. Being a year old and firmly established, we report here some happenings in the Japanese American Numismatic Society (JANS) which holds regular meetings in Tachikawa and Tokyo, Japan. We undertook printing post cards in Han (Japanese language) for mailing periodically to nearby educational institutions in an attempt to interest Japanese collectors in our meetings. When translated, the first draft did not read as intended, and neither did the second. A third draft was made and printed, but with all our care the word "society" had been translated to "academy." One meeting in the Lutheran Service Center in Tachikawa was held just after the floor had been waxed, and the cleaning woman had left 20-30 pairs of slippers for us to wear during the meeting. There are three little Japanese high school girls, whose English is very limited but who attend meetings regularly. They do not sell or buy coins and seldom partake of refreshments but since they come early and stay through each meeting, we presume they are coin collectors. Our Japanese members seldom bring coins to a meeting, although many of them have nice collections. In place of the actual coins, many carry a book of onion skin type paper upon which they have made excellent rubbings of their coins. One of our more affluent members carries his coins, including proofs, gold, patterns, etc., loose in a money belt around his waist. In November we started holding alternate meetings at the Meiji Club, Washington Heights, Tokyo. The first meeting was half over before it was discovered that the gate guards were not admitting our invited guests. Robert L. Layman, SSgt. stationed at Kamiseya and a JANS member, recently found a very fine 1909-S VDB cent in circulation. U.S. forces use scrip for any purchases of five cents or more, but the old faithful Lincoln cent is still very much in evidence. As of this writing, the Society has almost sixty paid-up members, and an average attendance at meetings of close to twenty-five. Yes, problems we have, but we feel that the results are well worth the effort. — PATRICIA BROWN, Sec.

Dr. Charles Leich, outgoing president of Evansville Coin Club, was awarded a plaque for the "wholehearted enthusiasm and efforts to make the Club the success it is" at the December 17 meeting. The meeting of some twenty-five interested persons at the I. L. Hansen home in Yankton, S. D., on a November evening resulted in the birth of a new club, christened the Lewis and Clark Coin Club. "Tuffy" Hansen was elected president; Russell B. Knudsen, vice president; and Miss Myrtle Schmidt, secretary-treasurer. Immediate prospects are for about forty members who will hold meetings the second Monday monthly. Dues for regular members are $2 yearly, while youths under 18 years of age may become associate members at $1 a year. — RUSSELL B. KNUDSEN, Vice Pres.

Recently elected officers of the Club are: president, Mrs. Charles Donnelly; first vice president, Paul Klahsen; second vice president, Stanley Miller; treasurer, Jacob Heinrich; and secretary, "yours truly." — MARY ANN ENZLER, Sec.

At the December 5 meeting of Inland Empire Coin Club, Spokane, the following officers for 1962 were elected: president, Mrs. Irene Alexander; vice president, Albert Deishl; secretary, Mrs. Vera Bice; treasurer, Millard Foster; and directors, Don Badgley, Cliff Couey, Edward Kozisek, Mrs. Frances Mills and Lester Schlecht. Hatie; treasurer, Pierre Palmentier; secretary, Daniel C. Parker; and governors Henry R. Burns, Paul J. Landry, Irving Moskovitz, Earl C. Schill and Edward J. Stanners, Jr. After staging a most successful Michigan State fall convention, the Club and its convention committee turned to finalization of plans for the greatest numismatic event ever held: the joint convention of American Numismatic Association and Canadian Numismatic Association in Detroit next August 15-18. Earl C. Schill, general chairman, expects more than three thousand to register and suggests that those wanting hotel accommodations should make reservations early. It will be held in the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel. He reports that most of the available bourse space of 125 tables has been sold. This Club's convention committee has a well deserved reputation for staging conventions that include the entire family, as well as the numismatists. Plans include many activities for the ladies as well as entertainment for the youngsters. We urge early planning to partake of our hospitality and to participate in this unprecedented convention. — DANIEL C. PARKER, Sec.

Officers elected at the December 13 meeting of Huntington (W. Va.) Coin Club are as follows: president, Fred Hudleston; vice president, Leland Arnold; secretary, Harold H. Honaker; and treasurer, Max Brammer. Activities outlined by the president for 1962 include the second annual coin show at the Hotel Frederick, June 16-17, for which there is room for thirty bourse tables. A committee was named to organize a permanent coin display at the Huntington Galleries. — HAROLD H. HONAKER, Sec.

A twenty-fifth anniversary silver medal will be issued by the San Diego Numismatic Society in observance of its quarter century birthday in 1962. Limited to one thousand pieces, the medal will be slightly larger and thicker than a silver dollar, serially numbered and will be sold by subscription at $6.00 on a first come first served basis. Designed by sculptor Robert J. Brosch, the cutting of dies and striking will be at the Medallic Art Company, New York. The obverse design shows Peace kneeling and holding olive branches around the number 25. A coin album below the figure of Peace signifies the science of numismatics. Devices on the reverse represent the city of San Diego and related historic events. After striking one thousand medals, the dies will be defaced and placed in the Society's collection. Orders with remittance should be sent to Francis S. Jones, Mintmaster of San Diego Numismatic Society, 732 Olive Ave., Coronado 18, Calif., who expects to make delivery early in 1962. — FRANCIS S. JONES

With thirty-five attending, the Seneca Coin Club held its third monthly meeting on December 9 at the Six's Corners Branch of Commercial National Bank in Tiffin, Ohio. A constitution and bylaws governing the Club were adopted, and the following officers were elected for 1962: president, Boyd D. P. Funk; vice president, Paul Schafer; secretary, Mrs. Jay Flack; treasurer, Raymond Shuck. Application for membership in A.N.A. is being made. With the addition of eleven applicants, the charter membership stands at forty-five. Meeting dates have been changed to the second Saturday evening monthly. The Halifax (N. S.) Coin Club held its 37th meeting on December 6 at the Y.M.C.A. with fifty-eight in attendance. Officers for 1962, to be installed at the January meeting, were elected as follows: president, Capt. G. P. Anderson; vice president, B. G. Irwin; secretary, N. C. Boltz. It was announced with regret that the Club's decimal centenary medals have all been sold. With a program predominantly about Newfoundland, Major S. S. Carroll gave a very interesting and informative talk on the coins, tokens and paper money of that province. Most of the items offered in the table auction were of Newfoundland, as were the competitive displays in which first place went to "yours truly." — NELSON C. BOLTZ, Sec.

Bunnett; librarian, Harvey Farrow; and directors, Douglas Foster, Kaj Rasmussen and Laurence Young. A.N.A. Board Member John J. Pittman of Rochester, N. Y., will be the guest speaker at our second annual banquet and auction, to be held on March 31. A medal which the Club is striking to commemorate its founding in 1960 will portray a figure of justice on the obverse, similar to the Canadian token known as the Lesslie two pence, with the legend NORTH YORK COIN CLUB EST. 1960 around. The reverse will depict the coat of arms of North York Township, with the legend PROGRESS WITH ECONOMY around it. The price in bronze is $4, in silver $8, and gold filled $14; or the three may be had in a special case with the Club's name in gold on the lid at $25. Orders should be sent to John K. Curtis, 27 Granlea Road, Willowdale, Ontario, Canada, with remittance in Canadian funds payable to him in the form of money order or certified check. — MRS. MAY BUNNETT, Sec.-Treas.

The sixty members present at the December 6 meeting of Brooklyn Coin Club elected the following officers for 1962: president, Boris Wishy; vice president, Ed Schuman; secretary, Robert Trimmer; treasurer, Irving Vengrove; and governor, Tom Wass. Topics of the evening's exhibits were silver dollars, U.S. gold and recent acquisitions. — ROBERT H. TRIMMER, Sec.

Al Kerner was present with plaque for his winning display of commemorative half dollars at the Club's recent banquet. — PAUL REITMEIR, Sec.

Fellowship and fun were top items on the agenda for members of Greater Houston Coin Club at their Christmas party. Surprise packages were given in a novel manner throughout the evening as members and guests enjoyed music by Linda Ruth Johns, and refreshments of Christmas cookies and punch. Charter members were honored guests. The serious business was installation of the following officers, with A. I. Martin, president of Texas Numismatic Association doing the honors: president, Bill Miller; vice president, Jim Raba; treasurer, Arnold Romberg; recording secretary, Patricia Young; corresponding secretary, Betty Bruett; sergeant-at-arms, R. T. Frazier. Outgoing officers handed comic items suggesting their duties to the new officers as they were installed. — DORIS MARTIN.

Most clubs hold auctions, but the one held by Cenla Coin Club of Alexandria, La., at its December 11 meeting was for Santa Claus. The local newspaper and Rotary Club created a "Doll and Toy Fund" for the benefit of children of poor families in the area. Club President Bill Kearns conceived the idea of holding an auction of numismatic items donated by members with proceeds going to the Fund. Members were contacted and two locations set up to receive material submitted. At meeting time we had a hundred and two lots recorded, marked and displayed. Informed of the project, Mayor George Bowden and City Judge George Foote came to the meeting and, in spite of lack of numismatic interest and previous auction experience, each took a turn at selling several lots. Judge Foote knocked down a 1945 nickel to Mayor Bowden, whereupon the Mayor commented, "I've been here only ten minutes and already the Judge has sold me a nickel for $1.75." But the Mayor got even by selling a cent to the Judge for $1.00. In spite of heavy rain and tornado warnings, visitors came from Tulsa and enjoyed taking part in the meeting. Final results of the auction were $225 for the Doll and Toy Fund and quite a bit of publicity for our Club. Fund chairman Ragan DeFreese hailed the auction as "a new concept in giving," and told members that the support and contribution of the Club was welcomed and appreciated. We plan to make it an annual affair and, by starting earlier, hope to contribute even more to the worthy cause. — J. H. BERTRAND, Publ. Chm.

The Sunday afternoon meeting of Anderson (Ind.) Numismatic Club was held in the Activity room of the Y.M.C.A. on December 17. The bylaws were amended to hold meetings on the third Sunday afternoon each month, it being felt that holding only one meeting a month would permit having better programs and increase membership participation. We plan to hold an "Open House" meeting on January 21 and have requested other clubs in Central Indiana to send representatives to engage in discussions of matters of mutual interest. Officers for 1962 were elected as follows: president, Howard E. Miller; vice president, Gene Zimmerman; secretary, Ken Shipley; treasurer, James Gwaltney; social director-advertising manager, Pauline Teverbaugh; sergeant-at-arms, Harold Harris; and three-year governor, Edgar Barnett. Holdover governors are Robert Teverbaugh and Fred Safford. A luncheon was served following adjournment. — KEN SHIPLEY, Sec.

Bowman, Danville, Ill.; and Julius DuBois, Jr., librarian. — GEORGE STEVENSON, Pres.

President R. H. Breckenridge of the Kentucky State Numismatic Association presided at a meeting of representatives of the Owensboro Coin Club and Louisville Coin Club recently at which plans were drawn up for the Association's spring show. The Owensboro Club will serve as host and has set the show dates tentatively at April 20-22. Dr. M. David Orrahood was appointed general secretary and publicity chairman; S. M. Fitts will be bourse chairman; W. R. Conley will have charge of exhibits and trophies, and the writer will be treasurer. Others in attendance at the meeting were David L. The Ashland (Ohio) Stamp & Coin Club held its Christmas Party on December 19, with a program of numismatic and Christmas numbers presented by R. R. and Mrs. Bennighof, Richard Wolfe and Mrs. Harold and Jean Oyster. During the exchange of dollar gifts, George Slabie was delighted to find that his package contained a multiple coin holder with a $5 gold piece in it. However, his joy diminished when it developed that President Leo Thomas had inserted the coin for illustrative purpose only. Under the co-chairmanship of T. T. Moore, auction, and R. R. Bennighof, bourse, plans are well in hand for our coin show February 3-4 at the Ashland Terrace Hotel. There will be auction sessions on both Saturday and Sunday afternoons. The Club's address is P. O. Box 124, Ashland, Ohio. — ESTHER M. OYSTER, Sec.

SMIES, Sec.-Treas.

ADVERTISERS PLEASE NOTE ALL FOLLOWING CONDITIONS

All correspondence relating to advertising should be addressed to the Advertising Manager, S. W. Freeman, P. O. Box 591, Newport, Ark. Make all remittances payable to the American Numismatic Association.

No advertising accepted from minors.

Advertising Contracts: These are available, covering periods of three, six and twelve consecutive months for display space as listed in the above Table of Rates, and are necessary if the schedule of reduced rates is to apply. If the advertiser prefers not to accept the Contract, such reduced rates will be granted only upon payment in advance for the period desired.

References: All advertisers who submit copy for the first time are definitely requested to furnish therewith banking or other satisfactory references.

Available Space Units: Practical considerations restrict the allocation of space units to those listed in the above table. Any amount of space (subject to any current limitation) is available IF these units or a combination of them are used. Unless contrary instructions are given, copy will be cut if found too full for the space designated; if no designation is made, it shall be understood the amount of space is left to the discretion of the Advertising Manager.

Unless under contract, smaller units than one-half page accepted subject to available space in desired issue.

Deadline: Copy must be received by the Advertising Manager by the 5th of the month to insure insertion in the following month's issue.

Illustrations: All cuts to be provided by the advertisers, care being used to see that they do not exceed in measurement the limits of the space unit desired. The Advertising Manager, when absolutely necessary, will have engravings made from furnished photographs, at national rates, to be paid for by advertiser.

We cannot accept mats or stereos.

Miscellaneous: Please furnish copy separately from your letter of transmittal. Advertising copy included in the body of a letter usually has to be retyped for the printer; this should not be required. Mail Bid Sales listing not acceptable. It is also the policy of the magazine to limit its advertisements to those of numismatic character.

Preparation of Copy: Advertising copy should be prepared with minute care. Carelessness invites error—something which both advertiser and publisher are anxious to avoid. Use only one side of the sheet. Send originals, not carbon copies. Use only paper of good quality, and not of extremely light weight. All copy must be typed, no handwritten accepted.

In the absence of an Advertising Contract, when payment in advance for any number of consecutive months has been made, if change of copy has not been received by the 7th of the month for the next issue, the latest preceding advertisement will be run.

Advertisers may use a trade name, but, except in the case of an incorporated concern, the name of the proprietor or some other responsible person connected with the firm must also appear in the advertisement.

The right to edit copy, to require payment in advance, and to decline any advertisement is specifically reserved.

INTRODUCING THE NEW GEORGE WASHINGTON MEDAL

THE NEW WASHINGTON MEDAL, third in a series of extremely high quality medals offered by Presidential Art Medals, Inc., is now available. This medal, like its predecessors the Kennedy and Lincoln medals, is a part of a continuing program in which three or four medals will be struck each year until medals of all presidents have been issued. New medals will be struck thereafter as Presidents are inaugurated.

LIMITED PRODUCTION and the unmatched quality of these medals will assure their increasing value. Purchasers of the preceding offering of the serially numbered platinum and silver medals have priority on the succeeding offering. New orders for these medals must, therefore, be filled in the event of cancellations and in the order in which they are received only. Money from unfilled orders will be promptly returned.

PRODUCTION OF BRONZE MEDALS of Presidents Kennedy, Lincoln and Washington has not as yet been limited and these fine quality medals are available immediately, individually boxed and accompanied by an attractive and informative pamphlet on the President and the sculptor.

THE MEDALLIC ART COMPANY, only American Medallist devoted exclusively to sculptured bas-relief and MR. RALPH J. MENCONI, internationally recognized artist of full portrait high relief sculpture have collaborated to make this Presidential Art Series a collector's treasure.

NOW . . . The official Presidential Art Medals Album is ready for immediate delivery. This 11" x 12" heavily padded black leatherette album displays both sides of each medal in the entire series. Thick pages and acetate slides protect the high relief of the medals. Send $15.00 for your individually boxed album or write for descriptive literature.

The DAG HAMMARSKJÖLD MEDAL THE FIRST IN A DISTINGUISHED SERIES THE "HEROES OF PEACE"

This dramatic, lifelike sculptured bust of the late U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld looks out with a troubled brow. A great man's concern and knowledge of the world's problems are reflected in this extreme high-relief of Hammarskjöld. He is depicted with an incredible inner realism by the distinguished sculptor, Mr. Philip Kraczkowski.

The reverse side of the medal incorporates a dedication message and a delicately designed "Hero of Peace" plaque.

The House of Shields, Inc., offers exclusively this first in a continuing series of medals, with the sincere feeling that it will be a treasured possession in itself, and, eventually, part of an entire memorable series.

All Limited Issues in Silver (.999Fine), 1-9/16" diameter, will be serially numbered and sell at $20. Orders received now requesting reserved serial numbers will be honored for the entire series. Bronze medals are 2-3/4" diameter and priced at $5.00. Only 25 Platinum serially numbered, $1500 each.

At the time this medal was being readied for issue, the United States Government announced the end of its sale of silver. This created a cost increase to the House of Shields in producing the 10,000 silver medals originally announced for the series.

With a sincere realization of an obligation to the many individuals who have ordered the first Heroes of Peace medal in silver, the House of Shields wishes to announce that there will be no increase in price on the original issue.

Over two thirds of this issue have already been sold, more than 3,000 of them at the dealer retail level.

Should you order the Dag Hammarskjöld medal now in its original silver issue, you will be guaranteed no cost increase for the succeeding 11 Heroes of Peace medals. Reminder: request reserved serial numbers in the limited issues.

All orders are now being processed with immediate delivery of the Dag Hammarskjöld medal.

Orders and reserved series numbers are processed in the order received. Avoid disappointment, and enclose a check or money order with your request now. (Ohio residents add 3% sales tax.)

THE NUMISMATIC REVIEW

We have been receiving inquiries for back issues of the Numismatic Review, Volume I, 1960. Much to our surprise we discovered that we were not able to satisfy these requests because our supply of back numbers was exhausted. We offer $5.00 in cash for complete, clean and unmarked sets of the Review for 1960. There were five individual issues, the last of which was a Double Number. If you have a clean, complete set, and don't wish to retain it for your Numismatic Library, send it in to us and help a Fellow Collector who wants it for his Library.

The next issue of the Review will be mailed early in February. May we remind Subscribers who did not take advantage of our offer last Fall that the Annual Subscription is now $3.50. The following rates apply for Airmail subscribers: United States, Canada and Mexico, $4.50; Europe and South America, $5.00; Australia, Asia and the Philippines, $7.50.

VERY SCARCE SILVER DOLLARS

1794 First Year of Issue

Here is an opportunity to acquire a rare coin at a bargain price. The piece had been mounted with a clasp at the top which was skillfully removed. Legend, Bust and date are very strong. Stars weak at left. Compares with coins we have seen priced at $2500 and $2800. Our price of $1200 is a real bargain even with the slight imperfection at top. Money back guarantee if not pleased.

1797 with SMALL LETTERS

This piece catalogs $1100.00 in uncirculated. Our coin is almost uncirculated with original luster and toning. Hairlines and stars are extremely sharp, and this coin rightfully belongs in an outstanding collection. Price of $795 is reasonable.

1836 GOBRECHT, GEM WIRE EDGED PROOF

Here is a coin that speaks for itself. Its language is universal. It is much easier to earn $1500, the price of this beauty, than to locate another such coin.

1836 GOBRECHT, Extremely Fine

For the collector on a budget this is for you. Only a few feathers show wear on breast. We believe it was a circulated Proof. An outstanding choice coin and only $600.

1866, First Year with Motto

If you are collecting types do not wait long before ordering. This will go fast. Coin is a superb, frosty, two-tone Gem Proof. Scarcity much underestimated by most. Price $160.

1873 CARSON CITY

"Nuf Said" because here is a scarce coin that not only speaks for itself, — it shouts. Very few collectors indeed, really know about this date. It is not scarce — IT IS RARE! One can find 1871CC, and 1872CC, but try to find 1873CC. Condition is fine with Liberty readable. Price $825. Do not buy this coin unless you have been really looking and wanting it for over five years.

Solved at last is the problem of labeling coin albums, plastic holders and tubes with surfaces not suitable for pencil or pen. Just cut the date, title or phrase from the sheet, soak it in water, and slide the decal from the paper onto the object.

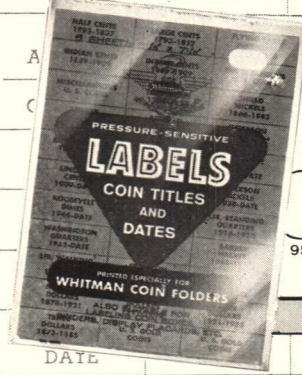

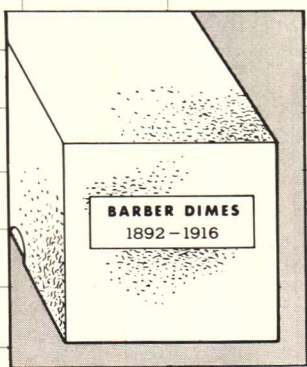

The gold lettering matches the printing in all Whitman albums and PlastiClad boards. It is printed on transparent acetate for neat appearance on any color background.

Whitman decals are available for U.S. and foreign coins.

No more bother with hand lettering to fill in blanks in your coin folders. Eliminate the problem of identification on plastics and coin boxes. Now, peel off the pressure-sensitive Whitman label from the sheet, position it properly, and press it down firmly. It really sticks!

Dates, up to 1968, titles, and phrases are printed in black on blue making a perfect match for Whitman coin folders. Since these self-adhesive labels adhere to practically any surface, every coin collector will find many other uses.

29 YEARS IN THE COIN BUSINESS

ANNOUNCING
PRIMITIVE MONEY QUARTERLY

A Journal of Strange,
Odd & Curious
Exchange Media

Years ago we, editorially speaking, returned from a foreign trip and were engaged by a well known Numismatist and Publisher, now deceased, to correct certain portions of his book on foreign coins in the light of our recently acquired knowledge of those countries and their coinage. The pay was small but the work interesting and we laboured many days on the manuscript and photographs.

When it appeared in print very little of our new material and no illustrations were included. The publisher explained that plates were expensive and in the interests of economy he had decided to use as many of the existing plates as he could.

Publishers are that way.

We understand that several are planning books on Odd & Curious Monies and we shudder to think what the economies of publishing will do to the veracity of their manuscripts.

We, too, are planning such a book and we shall include all known exchange media, illustrate every single item which it is possible to photograph, with your money, if you subscribe.

Every quarter, beginning this July, we shall issue a journal with articles and illustrations, lists of names and materials which in any way fall into the categories of unusual media of exchange.

These articles, lists and illustrations will become the nuclei of a big, fat, hard cover book as comprehensive as humanly possible.

We have some knowledge of the subject, have traveled extensively, handled much of the World's unusual monies in the lands where they were used, discussed them with the natives (frequently in their own language) and are tirelessly enthusiastic. Natheless, we shall call in all available experts who are willing to assist in such an undertaking.

The Quarterly will be issued regularly, regardless of the size of the subscription list. Its quality will be in direct ratio to the amount of working capital which it generates. The BOOK will be published in 1967 and will sell for $20.00 or more. It will be free to all who have subscribed for the five year germination period.

SUBSCRIPTION: $2.00 per year or $8.00 now, including the BOOK.

WE PROUDLY PRESENT THE STATEHOOD ART MEDAL SERIES

THE NEW STATEHOOD PROGRAM offers a series of finely sculptured, extremely high quality medals commemorating each of the fifty states. The obverse of each medal will bear a finely sculptured bust of a prominent native citizen of the particular state, and the official State Seal appears on the reverse. These medals are perfect complements to those in the popular Presidential Art series. Three or four Statehood Art medals will be struck each year until the series is complete.

THE OHIO STATEHOOD ART MEDAL, first in the series, has a full bust of the Wright brothers on the obverse, and the official Ohio seal appears on the reverse. The Wright brothers were officially selected by the Ohio Historical Society for this first-in-a-series medal. In making the selection, Erwin C. Zepp, Director of the Ohio Historical Society, made this statement concerning the Wright brothers' invention of the airplane: "With the exception of nuclear explosives, perhaps no other single invention or development has so profoundly influenced the lives of all peoples living in the 20th Century."

THE HIGH QUALITY of this medal was achieved by the Medallie Art Company of New York, and Mr. Ralph J. Menconi, a sculptor internationally recognized for his abilities in full portrait and high relief work.

PURCHASERS OF THE PLATINUM AND SILVER Washington medals in the Presidential Art Medals series will be given priority on the same serially numbered Ohio Statehood Art medal. An additional one thousand silver medals will be struck in the Statehood Art series. These medals will be offered to new collectors only . . . limit, two per person.

DEALER INQUIRIES are invited.

The Ohio Statehood Art medal will be available about January 15. It is offered as follows:

- ★ Platinum (pure), 25 serially numbered pieces, each$500.00
- ★ Silver (.999+), 7500 serially numbered pieces, each 10.00
- Bronze, each 2.50
- ★ All platinum and the first 6500 silver medals subject to prior sale.
See above explanation.

The medal's size, slightly larger than a half dollar, makes it well suited to display in an album, which will be offered at a later date.

RARITIES AND SCARCITIES.

SOME RARE GOBRECHTS

1836	Gobrecht $1 in Copper. Name between base and date. Plain edge. Reverse eagle in plain field. Choice nicely toned Proof. Judd 64. AW-49. A highly desirable coin of the greatest rarity with but some 2 or 3 known. Of interesting historical significance as this early design with the Gobrecht name placed under the figure of Liberty and over the date was short lived due to criticism of its prominent position, and was replaced with the name on the base. Sound value at ...$2900.00
1836	Gobrecht Dollar Die Trial of the obverse. Second die. Liberty thick set with very short neck. Details lacking on rock. Fusible alloy. This example is the Judd plate coin (see page 222)	550.00
1836	Gobrecht Dollar Die Trial of the reverse of Judd-60. Struck in copper on a very large planchet. Brill. Proof. This is the Judd plate coin	1075.00
1838	Gobrecht Dollar Hub Trial of the reverse of Judd-84 in Copper, not white metal (error in Judd text). This is the Judd plate coin	575.00

CAPITAL COIN HOLDER

CAPITAL holders are truly the ultimate in coin display. You are justly proud of your coins, and you will be more than delighted when you see them housed in CAPITAL display holders. They are economical too, providing a most luxurious setting for your favorite sets at the lowest cost consistent with highest quality.

ALL CAPITAL holders are made of Plexiglas, the lifetime plastic which will never fade or discolor. Each holder is made of three pieces of Plexiglas, the outer pieces being transparent, and the center piece in beautiful blue, red, or green transparent, jet black or milk white. All holders are titled in gold.

The coin openings are tapered and carefully sized to insure accurate fit of coins. Each holder is assembled with a generous quantity of plastic screws. The Proof Set holder is held with 6 screws.

Large stocks of holders are carried to insure speedy delivery, but some colors are occasionally out of stock. If alternate colors are given, you can be assured of quick delivery. All holders are match marked at the edge for ease of re-assembly.

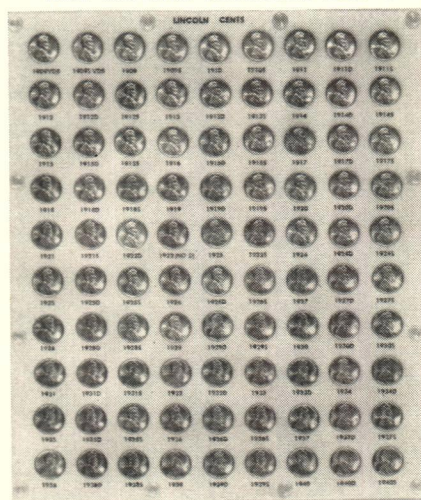

ALL CAPITAL PRODUCTS ARE UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED.

Grand Rapids 4, Michigan

Through the medium of The Numismatist I wish to announce to my collector-friends the purchase of the coin collection and library of Harry D. Houghasian of St. Louis, Missouri.

The coin collection consists of a small highly specialized group of Armenian coins the former owner spent years in bringing together and includes ancient, medieval and a few possibly inedited types on which further study is necessary.

The library was used for acquiring a good basic knowledge of the classical coinages and, features among many others, such important references as; Head's Historia Numorum, Newell's Eastern and Western Seleucid Mints, Basmadjian's Numismatique Generale de L'Armenie, etc.

Both coins and books, including a copy of the very rare Roman Medallions by Toynbee, are to be offered in a Fixed Price List at a later date. The catalogue will be sent to all on my mailing list and will be available to others free of charge while the supply lasts.

Useful for cleaning all kinds of coins, but particularly adapted to cleaning coins of copper or nickel.

EASY TO USE AND ECONOMICAL!
FAST ACTION — IT ACTUALLY CLEANS IN SECONDS!

Does not add shine, but brings out natural color, including original brilliance if it is still there under tarnish or coating. Dull or dark uncirculated coins become brilliant uncirculated coins in seconds.

This result of years of experiment can be safely used on valuable coins to improve their appearance and increase their value.

On sale in many leading stores in 4-oz. bottles, with full directions, at $1.00.

If your dealer does not yet have it, send us $1.00 for 3-oz. bottle (enough to clean hundreds of coins) carefully packed and postpaid to any address in the United States or Canada.

SPECIAL OFFER TO DEALERS

Send $4.00 for six 4-oz. bottles of "CCC," postpaid.

ONCE A YEAR!

Yes, right after Jan. 1 of each year I release my large annual "Stock List" pricing thousands of modern foreign coins in nice condition. There is no other retail list quite like it (no pretty pictures, though). No charge, of course.

Here are some of my services:

1. Retail list mentioned above, plus a regular monthly list of new items, additions to stock, etc. Free to buyers, $1.00 per year to others.
2. Custom made card coin holders for housing foreign coins. Over 200 varieties on hand now, more coming. These solve (at least partially) the problem of displaying your collection.
3. Wholesale price list showing many coins per 10 and per 100 at reasonable prices. Available to dealers only, write for it on your letterhead. New list ready about March 1.
4. Whitman Publishing Co.: I am a distributor for the Whitman line of books and supplies, and have most items on hand for immediate delivery, both wholesale and retail.

Some other things I haven't mentioned, but perhaps you should send for the list and see for yourself.
